I, the undersigned,, acknowledge responsibility for the items sent to the musée du quai Branly, absolving the latter from any liability, should the submitted items be lost, stolen, or damaged.

The information collected on this application form are subject to a data processing intended for the registration of the candidates to the musée du quai Branly Photography Residencies program, in the perspective of the study of their project by two selection committees. The recipient of these data is the Public institution "musée du quai Branly". In accordance with the law relating to "data and freedoms" of January 6, 1978, amended in 2004, any candidate who submitted an application to the musée du quai Branly has a right to access and modify his personal data. He can exercise this right by contacting the Legal Department of the musée du quai Branly (222 rue de l'Université - 75343 Paris cedex 07 or at cnil@quaibrantly.fr). The candidate may also, for legitimate reasons, oppose the processing of his personal data.
